MENU

The Crown & Sceptre, originally known as the Little Crown, was opened (circa) 1854 by John Histed as a beer shop. (He did not have a licence for wines or spirits). It was established after Croydon's cattle market moved from central Croydon to what is now Drovers' Road in 1851

In 1869 it was known for the first time as the Crown & Sceptre. It then changed hands and names several times until 1893 when it became known as the Crown & Sceptre again.

Today the tradition of a local pub continues with Karen and Matt, serving freshly cooked food, quality ales and a warm welcome. We are very proud of our pub, and we hope that you enjoy it with us.

We will be happy to cater for Special Occasions, Parties and Buffets.
Please ask for details.
